CONEY ISLAND JOCKEY CLUB STAKES.

The opulent and always progressive Coney Island Jockey Club has announced a very enticing list of stakes to close for entries

Monday, January 4, 1904. Included are such famous fixtures as the Futurity, the Suburban, now made a $20,000 guaranteed stake; the $15,000 Advance Stakes, the $25,000 Great Trial Stakes, a new handicap at a mile and a quarter, the Commonwealth, with $10,000 added; the Double Event, raised to $20,000, that is to say, $10,000 guaranteed for each half; the $10,000 Flatbush and many others, the least valuable being sufficient to excite covetous emotions in the mind of any horse owner. The executive officials of the Coney Island Jockey Club have always given money boldly and abundantly and the returns of each year's racing serves to show how well this policy pays. They know that after all it is the public that pays these rich prizes and the race-going public of New York and Chicago will always repay at the gate the endowment of the great events that excite general interest. The stakes now offered are:

NOTES OF THE TURF.

W. J. O., Chicago. Your parlay was a winner on Laureatea and Hagerdon to show, and void as to Cascine and Cyrienne, there being no show odds against either. It made no difference where Cyrienne ran, so long as no odds were laid against her for the place bet on. You could neither win nor lose on her.

J. H., Chicago. The decision in the case you refer to was in line with others uniformly made for several years past in similar cases and is not to be altered. Whether bookmakers agree with it or not is not a matter of concern to this office.

F. B., Chicago. Your parlay on Lady Free

Winner—Br. m, by St. George—Vantage (trained by S. C. Hildreth). Went to post at 2:00. At post 8 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second the same. Irene Lindsey handled her big weight in good style, showed a rare turn of speed and came away without great effort in the last furlong after racing Morning Star and Little Jack Horner into submission in the first half. Morning Star saved ground at the turn into the homestretch and outgamed Little Jack Horner. The latter beat the barrier a couple of lengths, was well ridden and ran his race. Allista finished in the middle of the track. She was crowded back in the run down the backstretch. Jimalong tired after going a half. Mordeella was outrun all the way.

Winner—B. g, by Big Henry—Flora Leach (trained by J. W. O'Neill). Went to post at 2:35. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Frank Bell outbroke the others, raced Big Ben into submission in the first half and held him safe all of the last quarter. Big Ben lacked the speed he displayed the last time out in his race with New York. Van Ness and Scorpio fought it out for third money and Van Ness proved the best. Scorpio did not run his best race.

Winner—B. c, by Lucky Dog—Nina Louise (trained by H. McDaniel). Went to post at 3:05. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Bountiful got a lucky start, showed a good flight of speed, but had to be hard ridden to stall off Symphony at the end. The latter closed up fast while rounding the turn out of the backstretch, but tired after getting to the leaders. Trossachs was bumped into when the start came, but made up some ground in the last furlong. Glenflo was bumped into at the start and was given an easy ride. Tower got caught in a jam soon after the start and was hopelessly crowded back. Lolly Daily broke well in motion, showed early speed, but tired in the stretch run. Step Aside saved ground at the turn into the homestretch and then tired.

Overweights—Tower, 1 pound.

Winner—Ch. f, by Mirthful—Response (trained by S. C. Hildreth). Went to post at 3:35. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Witfull ran as if she outclassed her field, went to the front with ease on the backstretch and had plenty in reserve at the finish. Ancke finished fast and outgamed Bondage and Ethics when it came to the final drive. Bondage closed up fast while rounding the far turn, came to the extreme outside at the turn into the homestretch and tired in the last sixteenth. Ethics was bumped into a couple of times at the furlong post and sulked. Ethel Wheat showed early speed, but quit after going a half. A bandage on her off fore leg became loose in the race and she finished with it streaming after her.

Scratched—(43057) Homestead, 106.

Winner—Ch. g, by Rey el Santa Anita—Florida (trained by W. P. Fine). Went to post at 2:12. At post 5 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second the same. Yellowstone, lucky and running in close attendance on the leaders, closed up fast in the stretch run, getting up to the winner in the last stride. Little Margaret was pocketed on the far turn, came through on the inside in the stretch and, after a game drive to the finish, was beaten in a close fit. Maud Sherwood forced the pace and sustained it surprisingly well throughout. Adirondack, interfered with in the early running, closed a big gap in the last half and finished running faster than the leaders. Our Pride showed a lot of speed and failed to stay. Handpress, nearly left, gained fifteen lengths on the leaders and was probably best. Madam Bishop held on steadily, but is evidently of moderate caliber. Milas will do better over a longer route. Hiponax is still short and can do better.

Overweights—Little Margaret, 1 pound; Milas, 2; Lurene, 2; Hiponax, 4. Yellowstone, show, 3 to 1. Little Margaret, show, 7 to 10. Maud Sherwood, show, 2 1/2 to 1. Handpress, show, 1 to 1.

Winner—Ch. c, by Magnet—Viola (trained by W. B. Sink, Jr.). Went to post at 2:39. At post 1 minute. Start fair. Won in a canter; second driving. F. E. Shaw, under a patient ride and with a lot in reserve, indulged Judge to the stretch, where he drew to the front cantering, winning by himself, was much the best and is a superior class colt. Judge, on the inside, got away in his stride, made the running on sufferance for a half mile and stood a long and punishing drive home, just saving second place. Silent Water held a forward position throughout, finishing fast and was wearing Judge down at the end. Miss Ringlets, from a slow beginning, steadily improved her position, coming on at the end like a cyclone. Andrew B. Cook went well. The Cure got away badly and was pocketed and interfered with repeatedly under a bad ride. Instructor showed a fast half. Effervescence, away poorly, ran worse. Puntillo made a very poor showing.

Winner—Ch. c, by Magnet—Tenebrae (trained by W. B. Sink, Jr.). Went to post at 3:03. At post 2 minutes. Start straggling. Won in a canter; second driving. The Fog outclassed his field in speed and it was a case of spreadeagling it from the start. Sallie Goodwin, suddenly improved, ran the best race of her career, held on in second position throughout and showed amazing speed. Mountbank came with a rush in the stretch run and would have been second in another stride or so. Oscar Tolle took the longest way around and made up ground at the close. Alice Cary failed to stay and can do better. Orsius gave a poor display of speed for him. My Surprise, on the inside and away flatfooted, had a rough journey from the start and could never get up into serious contention.

Winner—B. h, by St. Mark—Chalange (trained by J. Pelter). Went to post at 3:44. At post 1 minute. Start straggling. Won driving; second the same. Chub, lucky and skillfully reserved under a pull for seven furlongs, moved up in close attendance on El Oriente and, finishing fast, decisively wore him down in the stretch run. El Oriente made the running from the start, drawing clear and appearing all over the winner on the stretch turn, but tiring and swerving and badly interfered with by the winner in the final sixteenth. Dr. Bernays was always prominent and, being pocketed at the end, was compelled to pull around and then finished fast. Blessed Damozel, in spite of a rough journey in the final quarter, finished very fast and ran a game race. Expedient, inadequately handled, was nearly put over the fence at the start and practically left, but closed a tremendous gap and ran a great race. Silver Fizz failed to stay and ran a poor race. Tonopah went a fast seven furlongs and is worth remembering.

Scratched—(43095) Ilowaho, 110; 42837 Arthur Ray, 103; 42991 Marelio, 103. Chub, show, evens. El Oriente, show, 4 to 5. Dr. Bernays, show, 4 to 5. Expedient, show, 7 to 10.

Winner—Ch. g, by Martagon—Nekomis (trained by E. Wright). Went to post at 4:06. At post 2 minutes. Start bad. Won driving; second easily. E. M. Brattain, away in his stride, made the running throughout and in a long drive home outstayed Martinmas, but was disqualified for impeding the latter. Martinmas moved up on the inside of E. M. Brattain in the closing drive and, being pinned in next to the rail in the last sixteenth, was slightly interfered with and was exceedingly lucky to get the race. Colonel Van got away poorly and steadily improved his position and at the end finished going fastest of all. Escalante, inadequately handled and interfered with directly after the start, moved up with amazing speed on the stretch turn where the pace had accelerated and seemed promising when a furlong out, tiring eventually and is about due. Dora I. will give a good account elsewhere and went a fast five furlongs.

Scratched—43027 Quiet, 108; 43083 Headwater, 106; (43065) Aunt Polly, 102; 43083 Captivate, 97.

Winner—Ch. c, by Nomad—Charm, by Cheviot (trained by W. B. Jennings).

Went to post at 4:25. At post 3 minutes. Start straggling. Won driving; second the same. Arabo beat the barrier, but Martin failed to take advantage of it and made the running under a choking pull to the far turn, where Arabo was sent along into a safe lead and, being skillfully nursed, he just lasted out the journey. His forte is evidently over a sprinting distance. Dupont, inadequately handled, broke flatfooted and, losing much ground in the early running, steadily closed a tremendous gap on his own courage and, in a meteoric finish, just failed to get up, was evidently the best and is a coming good one over a distance. Ishtar ran prominently throughout and showed improved speed and stamina. Byron Rose, badly ridden, had a rough journey and finished fast. Allopath went a good seven furlongs. Jockey Club ran lapped on the winner for over six furlongs and the effort to beat him in the early running told on him in the closing strides.

Overweights—Dupont, 2 pounds. Arabo, show, 1 to 5. Dupont, show, evens. Ishtar, show, 3 to 2. Byron Rose, show, 2 to 5.

COAST FORM.

From early last May until the end of October several hundred horses were running at meetings held at Los Angeles, Sacramento, and Petaluma, California, and Seattle, Washington. A number were credited with notable performances. All of these horses will take part in the San Francisco and Los Angeles meetings, and knowledge of their performances is necessary to those who wish to consider intelligently the relative merits of the horses that will be raced at the two cities named. Daily Racing Form has prepared a record of the racing at the two Sacramento meetings, the Petaluma meeting, the Los Angeles October meeting and the long Seattle meeting, and it is now ready for sale at 15 cents.

NOTICE.

Daily Racing Form is a publication which is built by its staff from day to day. Its "form" and the number of its charts are copyrighted. The chart numbers are so arranged that legal identification is easy of proof. The selections and handicap figures attached to entries are arranged on the same basis. The latter come from the work of four experts after the telegraphic receipt of charts and entries. All persons are warned not to use said chart or index numbers, selections or handicap figures.

Frank Bell = 3 to 1 Won Bountiful = 7 to 2 Won

Again both of my selections brought home the money. I advised all my clients that Frank Bell was a cinch and has only to run to his work to win. Bountiful is in a soft spot and should win easily, and is cherry ripe. Plunge to win.

The WINNING INFORMATION that I impart to my numerous clients from week to week, should convince turfites that my information is the best and well worth following, and that to win you must have an "inside" line on the horses and know just what are the safest bets each day. My reputation and success on the turf is too well known to need comment, suffice to say that in the ten years that I have been before the public as a purveyor of reliable racing information, my facilities for obtaining WINNING INFORMATION was never better. My success is due to the fact that I am at the track early each morning timing the work-outs of the horses and noting their condition, and my acquaintance with numerous TRAINERS, OWNERS and JOCKEYS enable me to impart to my clients valuable advice from the best sources. Remember, I advise but TWO GOOD BETS each day; horses that I have positive information on can win at good odds. Below you will find my selections both winners and losers since the opening day, and have put over such good winners as JULIA JUNKIN, 20-1; DUTCH CARTER, 10-1; MAUSER, 8-1, and others at good odds.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

"Danny" Maher and Lucien Lyne, the American jockeys, returned from England last Friday, where they have been riding for the past season. Maher won the Derby and the St. Leger on Rocksand, and Lyne has winnings of the Imperial Produce Plate and the City of London Foal Plate to his credit.

Mike Lynch, who trains Rough Rider for P. S. Roberts, will take the old horse to Los Angeles, and has entered him in several stakes there, including the cup. Lynch believes that his erratic horse will win some good races yet.

The stewards at New Orleans have ordered that the entry of the mare Miss Golightly be refused on account of improper registration. The mare was registered as the sole property of L. G. Tate, but was entered under the name of L. G. Tate & Co. As soon as the ownership of Miss Golightly is straightened out she will probably be permitted to start.

Jockey Nash Turner, who recently returned from a thoroughly successful season abroad, will not ride in the United States this winter. He has announced that he will spend the cold months at his Texas home, and will return to the European tracks next spring.

John Fay is back in Cincinnati from Louisville, where he has been since the close of the Latonia meeting. He will keep his yearlings at Churchill Downs for another six weeks and then send them to Montgomery Park to be prepared for the 1904 campaign. "I had twenty-seven youngsters, but I got rid of ten, and now have decided to sell eight more of them," says he. "I was thinking of selling them at Lexington through the auction, but concluded to dispose of them privately." Fay says he will spend a portion of the winter in California.

Depositions filed Thursday at Covington, Ky., in the suit of W. E. Applegate against George G. Perkins for the controlling interest in the Latonia racetrack give Mr. Applegate's side of the controversy, now pending in the Kenton Circuit Court at Covington. Applegate has already admitted that he made a deal whereby he purchased the stock from Perkins, paying for it partly in cash and giving his notes for the rest of the purchase price, and depositing the stock itself with Perkins as collateral security. Applegate, in his original petition, alleged that, when some of the notes were overdue, Perkins, without due notice, sold the stock to his son Gilbert for $30,000. The contention now is that the plaintiffs, Applegate and others, are tendering the balance they allege is still due under the terms of the deal, and are demanding the stock. The principal deposition filed Thursday was that of Applegate. He states that the he first offered Perkins $150,000 for the stock, and afterwards raised this to $150,900 in cash and $50,000 to be paid in semiannual notes for five years. Applegate, in his deposition, states that Perkins knew who were in the deal with him. The names given are Emil Boulier, Henry Wehmhoff, Mark Simonton, Alex. Labold, Henry Ziegler, Charles Bollinger, Charles Grannon, W. F. Schulte and Ed Hopper. The deposition is quite lengthy, and is to the effect that the sale of the stock by Perkins to his son was done surreptitiously and without the knowledge of the plaintiffs, who stood ready to redeem the stock whenever it was placed on sale. Applegate claimed that he was prepared to pay the balance due on the stock, and did tender it. He said that he told Perkins last spring that he had a party who would purchase his interest for $100,000, but Perkins would not tell him what he would do. Depositions by W. C. Pierce and Mark Simonton were to the effect that they were watching the interests of Applegate, the latter deposing that he was prepared to look after the interests of Applegate and associates.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

H. D. Brown has shipped his stable to New Orleans from Bennings. In his lot is the speedy filly Tokalon, which was prevented meeting Alforten because of a slight ailment. Her complete recovery is a matter of ten days or two weeks, and she will doubtless be racing at New Orleans before the new year. Her going off at this particular time was a genuine disappointment to her owner, J. W. Fuller, the Texas turfman. Mr. Fuller values the filly highly and believes she is a particularly good one. Tokalon is another example of a cheap youngster developing into a good racing tool. She cost Mr. Fuller $100 at the Lexington sale a year ago. It is doubtful if her owner would take $10,000 for her now.

Doc Streett believes that he will get some good horses to handle for Mr. Keene in the west next season. The western turf is advancing at a rate that a good horse, at least, a good, servicable, medium handicap horse, one that can win minor handicaps in the east, is a valuable racing proposition out here. Besides the Montgomery and the Worth handicaps, there will be the coming spring the two $10,000 handicaps at Harlem and Hawthorne, and a vast number of condition events that a good horse that has not raced a great deal can get into. Streett has accomplished wonders with Mr. Keene's cast-offs, many of them cripples, and he thinks that now he ought to have a few good ones.

The sale of thoroughbred yearlings from W. O'B. Macdonough's Menlo stock farm, held last Monday at the Occidental Horse Exchange, San Francisco, drew a great crowd and brought out some lively bidding. The list follows:

Chestnut filly, by St. Carlo—Geneva VIII.; M. J. Daly	$375

Bay filly, by Sam Lucas—Peeress; A. J. Molera 150
The only other sale of the evening was that of Geyser, which went to Mr. Mallory at $100.

Tom H. Blackburn, for years trainer of the racing stable of E. F. McLean, the Cincinnati turfman, who dropped dead in the timers' stand at Oakley racetrack in 1897, has arrived at Lexington to purchase a string of horses and will return to the turf the coming season. The last horses Blackburn raced were Doncella, Gallivant and The Barrister, which he trained and raced in 1898. During his long engagement as head trainer for McLean, Blackburn amassed a fortune, and this he invested in land in northern Ohio. Since 1898 he has been busy improving his property, and now having all his interest in first-class order he is coming back to the turf to race a string of horses in his own colors. He expects to buy some horses at Lexington and Louisville, and will then go to California and get a few good breadwinners out of selling races. It is his intention to gather together a string of ten or twelve horses and begin racing them at either the Louisville or Latonia spring meeting of 1904.
